Taj Tashi

Thimphu, Bhutan

The Kingdom of Bhutan - long considered the mountain fortress of the gods - is an ancient kingdom secluded high in the Himalayas with unique customs and people with deeply-held beliefs. The environment is pristine, the scenery and architecture spellbinding, and the people warm and hospitable. It's truly "The Last Shangrila on Earth." Thimphu, the charming capital, rests in the heart of the Himalayas, 7500 feet above sea level, overlooking the Wang Chu river valley.

Taj Tashi, Thimphu, situated in the centre of the capital city, has adopted age-old Bhutanese traditions in its architecture. A short walk away from the golf course, the hotel offers panoramic views of neighbouring mountains.

Accessibility

Bhutan is accessible by air from Delhi, Kolkata, Kathmandu, Bangkok and Dhaka. The international airport, situated at Paro is 65 km away from Thimphu. Bhutan can also be accessed by road from Phuntsholing, which adjoins the Dooars region of India.

"Indians visiting Bhutan need to present a proof of their nationality with a passport or their Voters identity card. Visa will be issued on arrival"

All other Foreigners need to allow 10-14 working days in order to process various government formalities including pre-payment for issue of visa and relevant travel document"
